Students with Disabilities

Purdue University Northwest is committed to providing equal access and equal opportunity to University courses, activities and programs for students with disabilities. Students with documented disabilities that substantially limit a major life activity, such as learning, walking or seeing, may qualify for academic adjustments and/or services. To request information about academic adjustments, auxiliary aids, or services, please refer to the Disability Access Center web site at www.pnw.edu/access/.

Equal Access/Equal Opportunity University

Purdue University Northwest is an equal access/equal opportunity university. No qualified person will be denied admission or employment, nor will any student or employee be subjected to discriminatory treatment or be excluded from participation in any educational program or activity on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, national origin, disability, or status as a disabled veteran.

Why We Want To Know

Although reporting your Social Security Number (SSN) to Purdue University Northwest is not required and your SSN will not be used as your Purdue student identification number, it is required to receive certain federal tax benefits. Additionally, the SSN is helpful to accurately match your application with other records such as SAT or ACT scores. Disclosure of your SSN will be restricted to University business processes, such as those required for federal and state reporting as well as institutional purposes. By providing your SSN, you authorize the university to disclose it to these agencies.

Security on Campus

Purdue University is committed to assisting all members of the campus community in providing for their own safety and security. The University prepares an Annual Security Report containing statistics and information relating to campus safety and security policies and programs. All admitted students will receive Purdue University Northwest Annual Security Report Notice.
